Material : Gilted wood

Width : 41

Height : 76

Description

A pair of wall mirrors made of carved wood gilded with imitation gold leaf, crafted around the mid-20th century based on traditional 18th-century Venetian designs. The frames feature rich carvings of volutes, floral motifs, and an openwork cornice with a central shell. The mirrors retain a pleasant antique patina. High-quality handcrafted pieces with a particularly decorative character. They show normal signs of aging, minor chips and oxidation of the gilding, and some re-gluing, which do not detract from the overall effect. Suitable for both classic and contemporary interiors, as well as for hospitality establishments and interior design projects. Period: Mid-20th century, circa 1950 Origin: Italian production, Venetian style Dimensions: Height 76 cm, maximum width
