Description

With this pair of curved chests of drawers, we are in the full Louis XV style (1715-1774). Fabulous examples of the Modena style, featuring curved fronts that extend from the base molding to the top. Entirely paneled in walnut and inlaid to form burl wood panels--a technique typical of the Emilian tradition--these motifs are repeated on the sides, the drawer fronts, and the top, underscoring the craftsmanship and significance that set them apart. The pair and their pristine condition elevate these two pieces, placing them in a realm that transcends mere furniture. Rare and beautiful. Dimensions (cm): W 128, D 62, H 86.
