Large Carved Wooden Library Table With Lion Heads - Renaissance Style - 19th Century

1 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 158

Height : 78

Depth : 120

Description

Large carved wooden library table with lion heads - Renaissance style - 19th century A superb and imposing Renaissance-style library or center table dating from the second half of the 19th century.This elegant table stands out for its richly carved decoration, generous proportions, and beautiful dark brown patina.It features a large rectangular top with a molded frame, resting on a wide, richly carved apron.The base is adorned with a remarkable design of stylized foliage, scrollwork, and motifs carved in relief, in the style of French Renaissance furniture.At the four corners, powerful carved lion heads lend character and nobility to the piece.They crown connecting blocks decorated with rosettes.The table rests on four sturdy quadrangular legs, carved with scale motifs and finished with

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

stepped, molded bases.The spandrels below the waistband also feature delicate carved ornamentation, reflecting the care taken in crafting this piece.The piece as a whole offers a particularly elegant architectural silhouette, combining the strength of the legs with the delicacy of the carvings.Its beautiful antique patina and lavish decoration make it a piece with character, ideal as a large library table, coffee table, or dining table.Period: second half of the 19th century.Style: Renaissance / Neo-Renaissance.Wood: carved solid wood.Dimensions:Height: 78 cmLength: 158 cmDepth: 120 cmCondition: generally in good condition, with visible signs of use and wear on the tabletop and carved sections.A very beautiful antique table with expressive carvings, particularly decorative, which will naturally find its place in a characterful interior, a library, or a historic home.