PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Curved Louis XV-style Display Cabinet - Lacquered And Gilded - Circa 1900

850 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 88

Height : 190

Depth : 46

Description

Curved Louis XV-Style Display Cabinet - Lacquered and Gilded - Circa 1900 A very attractive Louis XV-style display cabinet with a curved front and rounded glass sides, featuring an elegant ivory lacquer finish accented with gilding.This display cabinet stands out for its beautiful, undulating cornice, adorned in the center with a carved design of roses, foliage, and gilded floral motifs.The front opens with a large glass door, the pane of which is adorned with a delicate engraved design featuring stylized motifs and decorative fillets.The two curved, glass-paned sides lend a sense of lightness to the piece and provide excellent visibility of the displayed objects.The interior, fully lined with deep red fabric, features three display shelves, offering four levels of storage.The contrast

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

between the red interior, the ivory lacquer, and the gilded ornamentation lends this display case a particularly refined character.The lower section is accented by a curved crossbar adorned with gilded floral motifs.The piece rests on four curved Louis XV-style legs, decorated with acanthus leaves.Period: early 20th century.Style: Louis XV, Rocaille-inspired.This elegant display cabinet will naturally find its place in a living room, dining room, antique shop, or refined interior, to showcase porcelain, glassware, collectibles, or silverware.Dimensions:Height: 190 cmWidth: 88 cmDepth: 46 cmCondition: in good cosmetic condition, with some signs of use and minor wear to the lacquer and gilding, visible in the photographs.Red interior showing signs of age.A charming decorative display cabinet with harmonious proportions and a beautiful presence.