Description

Doxa, large stainless steel chronograph with pulsometer and two sub-dials, circa 1950. Equipped with the Valjoux 22 manual-winding caliber, featuring a minute-accumulation function (45 minutes) and a column-wheel chronograph start mechanism. Beige "sector" dial, pulsometer scale graduated for 30 beats, railway-track minute track, painted Arabic numerals (12 and 6), and leaf-style hands. Solid, unpolished two-piece case with a screw-down caseback, smooth bezel, and water-resistant pushers. Dimensions: 38 mm (excluding crown) x 45 mm (including lugs). Movement and case are signed and numbered. A collector's piece in near-new condition (likely NOS), in perfect condition and fully functional, serviced in our workshop. 2-year warranty.
