Description

An exceptional and highly collectible French Art Deco opalescent glass vase by the renowned manufacturer Edmond Etling, made in Paris during the early-to-mid 20th century.This elegant semicircular vase features a beautifully detailed, high-relief molded design depicting a classical, partially nude female figure interacting with flying doves, with a partially nude male figure on the opposite side.The piece displays exquisite variations in color and opalescence, retaining delicate, milky blue hues along the thicker molded contours of the figures.
