

Pair Of Engravings Depicting Chinese Motifs, 18th Century

240 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Paper

Description

A pair of engravings depicting Louis XV-era Chinoiserie in the style of Jean-Baptiste Pillement. These two landscapes are animated by figures along waterways on which pagodas sail, and are lined with structures such as pavilions, windmills, temples, and footbridges. This pair of prints reflects the fascination with the Far East that was very much in vogue during the 18th century. These engravings on paper, enhanced with watercolor, are presented in wooden frames and protected by bubble-top glass. Dimensions of the print : 6.5 cm x 18 cm / Dimensions including frame : 12 cm x 23.5 cm Shipping available to France, the EU, and outside the EU upon request.
