Description

This elegant 1930s-era mirror is perfect for a sophisticated, modern apartment. Its timeless style fits anywhere and creates interesting contrasts. Don't hesitate to hang it on an orange wall! (This is very trendy when applied to a limited area and coordinated with other colors. A home office or entryway would also be perfect. This is a "between-two" mirror designed for a discreet corner or to be placed between two windows. Its antique beveled glass adds to its charm, and its frieze of gilded channels highlights the black of the moldings, echoing the gold of its frame. In short, a very chic mirror that adds a refined touch to any home. (We deliver personally in Paris and the Paris region, and we prefer to communicate via WhatsApp for any negotiations, as messaging apps no longer necessarily offer the
