Description

"The Annunciation" Date: 17th-18th centuries Contemporary gilded wooden frame, molded and decorated in relief Technique: Oil on canvas on a stretcher Canvas: 127.5 x 100.5 cm Frame: 160 x 120 cm The painting depicts the Gospel scene of the Annunciation, when the archangel Gabriel announces to the Virgin Mary the conception of Christ. On the left, the announcing angel, depicted with outstretched wings and a flowing robe, is shown descending. The gesture of his raised hand signifies the act of divine revelation. On the right is the Virgin Mary, depicted in a contemplative and pensive pose, with her gaze lowered and her hand on her chest, symbolizing acceptance and humility. Mary is placed next to a lectern with an open book, a clear reference to the Holy Scriptures and spiritual
