Description

Small mirror in carved wood gilded with pure gold - Early 19th centuryAn elegant small mirror from the early 19th century, crafted from finely carved wood and gilded with pure gold, featuring rich decoration with volutes, curls, and plant motifs.The frame features a refined contoured profile, with an elaborate upper cornice embellished by a central rosette motif, flanked by opposing volutes. The sides are embellished with carved ornamental elements, while the lower section concludes with an elegant symmetrical decoration.Originally intended for liturgical use as a processional frame, the frame was later transformed into a small mirror by inserting a mirror, while fully preserving the charm and character of its original function.The pure gold gilding has developed a beautiful patina over
