Description

Anthropomorphic amulet Carved and polished soft stone. Slight wear on the legs and signs of age. Mezcala culture, Guerrero region, Mexico 400-100 B.C. Dimensions: H. 5.4 cm - W. 1.1 cm Provenance: Former American collection assembled in the 1970s, Arteprimitivo auction, NY Sold with a certificate of authenticity by expert Serge Reynes Guaranteed to be authentic and of the period. * Shipping costs upon request "The Mezcala culture remains mysterious to this day. This amulet captivates with its astonishing economy of form: A few geometric shapes are enough to bring the silhouette to life. Its frontal orientation and simplicity lend it a silent, timeless presence, whose purity seems to foreshadow--more than two millennia in advance--certain trends in modern sculpture."
