Description

An elegant Belle Époque-style table lamp, crafted from porcelain and adorned with gilded bronze, executed in the artistic style of the Manufacture Nationale de Sèvres, which defined the aesthetic standards of French decorative arts in the 19th and early 20th centuries. The baluster-shaped body, featuring sculpted side handles, is decorated against a deep cobalt background, traditionally associated with Sèvres productions. Polychrome floral garlands, graceful twigs, and small birds are painted with great finesse, reflecting the characteristic elements of Sèvres decorative painting. The delicate gold highlights and the finely chiseled gilded bronze base form a harmonious decorative ensemble. Dimensions: Height with socket 55.5 cm. Condition: Good condition, with slight signs of wear. Provenance:
