Description

Louis XV-style cherry wood chest of drawers
Elegant cherry wood chest of drawers, featuring three rows of drawers on the front, adorned with molded panels carved with garland motifs, ribbons, and foliage scrolls. The front features a beautiful curved line, characteristic of the arbalète style, accentuated by scalloped crossbars and a gracefully curved apron. The upright posts are chamfered with spandrels and gaudrons. The piece rests on curved, scroll-shaped legs with shell-shaped finials. The pull handles and keyholes are made of patinated bronze. The cherry wood has a warm patina with blonde and amber hues, highlighting the wood's grain and the relief of the carving. The interiors are meticulously finished and varnished, Period: late 19th century
Wood: cherry
