PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Shako Of The 6th Mounted Chasseurs, Model 1801/1804, Modified In 1806. First Empire.

5 500 EUR

Signature : 1801 / 1804 modifié 1806 . Premier Empire.

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : -

Width : -

Diameter : -

Height : -

Depth : -

Description

Black felt body, 19 cm high, covered by a black polished cowhide leather cap with a diameter of 24 cm, folded over the felt. A black waxed leather band is sewn to the bottom of the felt; at the back is a buckle with a prong, and beneath this buckle is a leather gusset. Round visor made of black patent leather with a tin ring folded across the outer edge.Plate on the front; it is diamond-shaped, 11 cm high and 10 cm wide, made of tin-plated tinplate, embossed with a crowned Imperial eagle holding a hunting horn in its talons, and the number "6" cut out at the bottom of the plate.A lacquered leather cockade in the three colors of the French tricolor, 6.5 cm in diameter, plus a leather gusset for the green pompon, Tin chinstraps featuring a rosette with a hunting horn and 15 scalloped tin scales.Inner cap

Dealer

Cartouche 12
Souvenirs Historiques et Tableaux
Mobile : 0688971349

Rue du Pin 46100 Figeac
Lunan 46100

consisting of a 6-cm black sheepskin headband with wear and missing sections, topped by a beige canvas cap approximately 8 cm wide.Note: Shaft and first straps made of leather from the 1801-1804 model. In fairly good condition for an item over 200 years old.France. First Empire.