Description

Charles CHARDAR (1885-1969) - A Walker on a Path Lined with Olive Trees. Oil on panel (or hardboard), signed and dated "CHARDAR 1967" in the lower right corner. A superb and luminous Mediterranean composition depicting a wooded landscape, most likely set in the South of France or the Mediterranean region. In the foreground, olive trees with gnarled, winding trunks dominate a sunlit path where one can make out the silhouette of a walker or shepherd seen from behind, carrying a staff. The background hints at a mountainous landscape silhouetted against a clear sky with soft shades of azure and pink. The paint is vibrant and the brushwork generous, applied in rich, spontaneous impasto--characteristic of the artist's Post-Impressionist style. The palette features
