

Side Table By Maison Jansen

850 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Metal

Width : 50 cm

Height : 45 cm

Depth : 35 cm

Description

Side table by Maison Jansen Rectangular neoclassical metal table featuring a removable patinated mirror top Slender, elegant metal legs connected by curved crossbars that fit together seamlessly at a central bar Distinctive openwork frame, in the "gallery" or "fretwork" style, around the perimeter of the tabletop, which holds it perfectly in place "Églomisé" mirror panel, beautifully patinated, offering a smoky antique finish Founded in 1880 by Jean Henri Jansen, the renowned Parisian design house Maison Jansen has gained international recognition for its refined interpretations of neoclassical and traditional French styles. Furniture from this prestigious house remains highly sought after for its craftsmanship, elegance, and timeless decorative charm. 50 cm wide, 35 cm deep, and 45 cm high In

Dealer

Vintitch

Modern furniture

Mobile : +32478803943

Groenstraat 29

Opwijk 1745

good vintage condition, showing only minor signs of wear due to age and useMid-century French design