Description

Memento Mori Hair Frame with Ivory Plaque, Decorated with a Bouquet, and Curved Glass, Napoleon III Style SSL26CHV002A beautiful and touching keepsake made from hair, dating from the Napoleon III era (Second Empire), in the grand tradition of 19th-century mementos.Delicate, fine craftsmanship depicting a floral bouquet, with pistils represented by small white porcelain beads.The person's name is on the back of the frame; see the photos.The frame is rectangular, made of blackened wood, with a beautiful rounded molding featuring an antique patina.An object of remembrance and sentiment. In the 19th century, people preserved the hair of their loved ones as a tangible connection to them. These frames were made while the person was still alive, as a token of love, friendship, or family
