

Lalic Vase In Frosted Crystal, Rosine Model

280 EUR

Signature : Lalique France

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Crystal

Description

A stunning frosted crystal vase by Lalique, adorned with a delicate motif depicting two birds in flight, finely sculpted in relief. This piece perfectly exemplifies the craftsmanship and timeless elegance of the House of Lalique. The vase's body, crafted from satin-finished crystal, features a soft, silky texture that subtly contrasts with the transparency of the birds' wings and outlines. The meticulous details of the feathers and forms create a sense of movement, capturing the lightness and grace of the birds in flight. The vase's curved silhouette is enhanced by lightly engraved spiral motifs, accentuating the sense of fluidity and dynamism. The neck of the vase is edged with a polished border, adding a touch of brilliance that elegantly contrasts with the satin finish of the body. It rests on a circular base of

Dealer

Magasins Réunis

Tableaux, Antiquités et Design

Tel : 0233400552

Mobile : 0615650912

179 avenue de Paris

Cherbourg 50100

frosted crystal, ensuring perfect stability while highlighting the harmonious balance of the entire piece. A remarkable example of René Lalique's glass artistry, where mastery of crystal craftsmanship meets a highly poetic, naturalistic inspiration. A rare collector's piece that is both decorative and timeless. In its original packaging.