Description

A walnut and walnut burl drop-front chest, featuring scalloped frames inlaid with various woods, from Piacenza and dating from the 18th century. The scalloped front features two drawers, surmounted by a drop-down door that conceals a chest with six drawers and a secret compartment under the top with additional compartments. The rounded side panels are decorated with leaf-motif carvings that extend to the aprons and the scalloped legs, which end in curls. The interior is made of poplar, offering an elegant contrast to the richly carved exterior.Product condition:Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos. If certain details are not clear from the
