Description

This late 19th-century gilded bronze and glass chandelier, from Italy, is a prime example of artisanal excellence. Featuring forty-two lights on a double tier, the design includes six upper lights supported by arms adorned with elaborate curls and masks. The lower tier features six lighting groups, each with six lights, supported by "C"-shaped arms adorned with foliage motifs, rosettes, and pinecones. The central shaft is also decorated with foliage motifs and scrolls, while crystal bobeches, pendants, and finials add a touch of brilliance. There are restorations and replacements.Product condition:This lamp, due to its age and wear, may require restoration work and likely has an electrical system that does not comply with current regulations. We strive to present the lamp's actual condition as completely
