Description

An elegant pair of wingback chairs made of solid, molded mahogany. These chairs stand out for their remarkable organic design and sinuous lines. The mahogany frame, richly patinated and polished, features beautiful curves along the armrests, side posts, and legs, giving the pieces a particularly elegant and dynamic silhouette. The tall, slightly flared backs, highlighted by a molded frame, are upholstered in velvet in a warm golden ochre shade. The same fabric covers the seats, which are embellished with decorative studding that highlights their contours. The cabinetwork, seats, and fabrics are in very good condition; our upholsterer can replace the fabrics upon request, based on a quote.
