

F. Barbedienne, Gilded Bronze Cartel In The Louis XV Style, Napoleon III Period

2 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

F. Barbedienne, Important Gilded Bronze Cartel in the Louis XV Style Napoleon III Period. Exceptional and Important Gilded and Chiseled Bronze Cartel in the Louis XV Style, from the Napoleon III Period. This box-shaped clock is richly adorned with volutes, acanthus leaves, foliage scrolls, and openwork panels featuring a floral trellis design. It is surmounted by a delicately executed seated putto. This clock rests on a substantial rocaille base with four slightly flared legs and foliage scrollwork. Its circular white enamel dial, signed F. BARBEDIENNE, PARIS, features Roman numerals for the hours and Arabic numerals for the minutes, embellished with two gilded bronze openwork hands. Its movement is numbered and bears the CH. BOYE hallmark. A piece of

Dealer

DANTAN

Mobilier et objets XVIIIème, XIXème, XXème

Mobile : 06.81.50.13.37

Arras 62000

furniture of fine craftsmanship, with elegant and refined lines. This wall clock combines the precision of the art of watchmaking with a sublime visual appeal, thanks to the richness of its Rocaille ornamentation and its beautiful proportions. It will enhance your mantelpiece, console table, or ceremonial piece of furniture... This piece, of remarkable quality, exemplifies the refinement of the Louis XV style and will add a touch of prestige to your interior. Louis XV-style piece, Napoleon III period. Dimensions: Height: 60 cm Width: 42 cm Depth: 25 cm In Excellent Condition. We are at your disposal for any additional information WWW.DANTAN.STORE