Description

Early 20th-Century French SchoolThree interior views of the Château de Beaumesnil in Normandy: library, kitchen, and living roomPencil, brush, watercolor, and gouache on paper mounted on cardboard62 x 48 cm eachBlackened and gilded wooden framesDimensions with frames: 66 x 52 cm eachOne of the works shows significant surface wearNote: The works are likely part of a Renaissance-style renovation project for the château dating from before 1921--the year the interiors were redesigned by architect Henri JACQUELIN (Évreux, 1872 - Toulouse, 1940), or they may simply reflect a fanciful reinterpretation of the interiors as they might have existed during the reign of Henry IV. The Château de Beaumesnil is located in Normandy,
