

Hand-carved Wooden Face Mirror With An Owl And A Spider -- Circa 1900

145 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : 32 cm

Description

Original hand mirror carved from wood with a brown patina, featuring an animal motif of an owl and a spider on the handle. The oval-shaped mirror is set within a dynamic frame, embellished with scrollwork, small floral motifs, and beaded friezes. A mascaron crowns the ensemble in the Neo-Renaissance style. The owl, with its meticulously detailed plumage, sits atop a small spider carved in relief. This unusual pairing gives this toiletries holder a unique presence, straddling the line between decorative bestiary and symbolic imagery. The back is closed by a wooden panel and features a small hanging ring that also allows for wall display. Period: late 19th-early 20th century, circa 1880-1900 Origin: European craftsmanship. Style: Neo-Renaissance style, animal motifs. Material: carved wood with a

Dealer

Galerie fauna&flora
Antiquités

Mobile : 0032498247712

23 rue Reffe
Aywaille 4920

brown patina and mirror. Dimensions: total length: 32 cm. Condition: patina and signs of use; surface wear on the reverse and small marks visible on the mirror. See photographs.