Description

A stunning pair of sculptural lamps depicting the Sun and the Moon, designed by Jean-Charles de Castelbajac, a French designer renowned for his original artistic vision, which bridges the worlds of art, fashion, and design.The Sun, with its expressive face surrounded by rays, is paired with a crescent Moon featuring a sculpted human profile. Their luminous yellow color and relief-carved faces give these two lamps a unique decorative presence, straddling the line between sculpture and functional object.Crafted from yellow molded resin, the two pieces rest on slender black metal stems and matching circular bases. Their expressive and playful aesthetic evokes Castelbajac's creative world, characterized by vibrant colors, imagination, and references to Pop Art.Plates bearing the designer's name are
