

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Antique Oil Painting On Canvas, "forest Landscape With A Hunter," 19th Century, Framed

580 EUR

Signature : Eugene Deterre, 1810-1842

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

Antique original oil painting Landscape with trees, a house, a hunter, and a dog Dimensions: 46 × 55 cm (18.1 × 21.6 inches) Frame: 60 × 68.5 cm (23.6 × 26.9 inches) Minor, almost imperceptible restoration. The work is most likely attributed to the Belgian landscape painter Eugène Napoléon Deterre (Eugeen Deterre, 1810-1842).
Brief Biography
Born on October 30, 1810, in Bruges.
Trained by his uncle (a decorator and restorer) and briefly at the academy, then under the landscape painter Auguste van de Steene. He worked primarily independently, studying nature.
Beginning in 1833, he settled in Brussels and exhibited regularly at Belgian art salons (Antwerp, Ghent, Brussels, Kortrijk, Liège, etc.) as well as abroad.
He painted views of the Bruges area and Flanders, wooded and

Dealer

Art Matchina

Peintures anciennes

Mobile : +33760906719

3 rue Rene Laennec

Fontenay-le-Fleury 78330

rural landscapes, and farms, sometimes featuring figures (shepherds, fishermen, etc.). His style is characterized by sincere realism: broad, light brushstrokes and natural colors, without excessive romantic idealization. He is considered one of the earliest representatives of modern realism in Belgian landscape painting.o He worked on commission, notably for the Duke of Arenberg, for whom he painted views of the family estates.o He died on August 26, 1842, in Brussels, at the age of only 32.Good antique condition.