Description

Charles Chardar (1884-1939) - A Walker with a Dog in a Sunlit Grove
Title: Walker and His Dog Under the Canopy (or Lively Woodland)
Artist: Charles Chardar (1884-1939)
Medium: Oil on panel
Period: First half of the 20th century (circa 1920-1930)
Description: A superb oil painting on panel depicting a light-drenched woodland landscape, attributed to the French Post-Impressionist painter Charles Chardar. The composition offers remarkable depth: in the foreground, a sunlit dirt path winds through an avenue of majestic trees whose dense foliage forms a veritable canopy of leaves. A walker wearing a hat, accompanied by his dog, walks along the path toward a luminous vista opening onto a clear horizon. The work is distinguished by a generous and vibrant brushstroke, applied in
