This large and lavish still life is an iconic work by the painter Charles Chardar. Painted with a rich and generous impasto in the Post-Impressionist style, the composition depicts a veritable rustic and sumptuous feast laid out on a pleated white tablecloth. In the foreground, a crispy baguette sits next to a tray holding a cut of meat or a topped slice of bread, surrounded by colorful peppers, artichokes, onions, and fruit. In the background, an imposing head of cauliflower, leeks, and a large overturned
