Description

A rare and imposing polychrome plaster bust depicting Pierrot shedding tears. A beautiful statue of a subject that evokes childhood nostalgia and is inspired by the Commedia dell'Arte. Pierrot and Colombine, Pierrot and Harlequin, etc.--everyone remembers this popular imagery that shaped the childhoods of so many people. Our bust has retained its beautiful polychrome finish in sepia tones and is in perfect condition. It rests on a black pedestal, on the back of which appears the signature of Corneille in Toulouse. Please note: this piece is quite heavy and large. Dated from the late 19th to early 20th century. A very beautiful depiction of a weeping Pierrot--quite rare to find on the market. Dimensions: 52 cm tall and 16 cm by 16 cm at the base of the pedestal. We deliver and ship worldwide; please contact us for an
