Description

An imposing bust titled "Young Woman with a Rose," based on the original work by sculptor Jean-Jacques Caffieri (1725-1792). It is believed to be a portrait of the actress Mademoiselle Luzy. The original is in the Louvre Museum. This graceful and mischievous model is made of plaster with a terracotta-style patina and likely dates from the 1900s. It rests on a crimson velvet pedestal. In good condition; note a few slight areas where the patina is missing, revealing the white plaster underneath. Total height: 80 cm Shoulder width: 38 cm Base diameter: 17 cm Base: diameters 21 and 22 cm
