Pair Of Director's Chairs, Wood And Canvas

350 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

A charming pair of "director's chair"-style folding armchairs, made of mahogany-stained wood with a rich patina. The X-shaped base is fully collapsible and can be completely disassembled, in keeping with the traditional construction of this iconic model, which originated in movie studios in the early 20th century. The armrests and legs, featuring turned cylindrical ends, are assembled with brass hardware.The seat and backrest are upholstered in thick, ecru-colored cotton canvas with a diamond-quilted pattern, which can be easily removed for cleaning. Comfortable and practical, these armchairs stand out for their light silhouette and their dual practical and decorative appeal, making them highly sought after in colonial, nautical, or contemporary interiors.This pair, in good condition, will retain all its charm
