Description

This scene, painted by Alexis de Broca, is likely set on the Atlantic coast, where the artist lived--in Le Croisic, La Baule, or Pornichet. The work depicts young children on a pier in front of a seascape featuring fishing boats. The frame is a later addition. Alexis de Broca (1868-1948), a French painter and draftsman, managed to make a living from his art throughout his life. He won a silver medal at the 1922 Salon des Artistes Français. As an illustrator for numerous publications such as Le Phare de la Loire, he is known, in particular, for his illustrations for the LU brand.
