

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Pair Of Decorative Majolica Plates

500 EUR

Signature : De Angelis A.

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 32

Description

Kiln in central Italy (Castelli d'Abruzzo), 20th century One of the two is signed on the back: De Angelis A. An elegant pair of majolica plates framed with wooden borders. Dimensions: Each plate is 32 cm in diameter; the frame is 40 cm Both are decorated with mythological scenes: "The Abduction of Europa": Zeus, having transformed himself into a white bull to seduce Europa, allows her to climb onto his back so he can abduct her and take her to Crete. Three other women appear in the painted scene. - "Forest Idyll": a faun, playing the horn, attempts to seduce a nymph accompanied by another female figure, while two cherubs, lying at their feet, play with symbolic objects, including a mirror and several amphorae. This artwork, like all of our other items, will be sold accompanied by

Dealer

Antichità Santa Giulia

Haute Epoque - Design

Tel : +39 335 6166605

via Musei 50/c

Brescia 25112

a certificate of authenticity. We personally handle and arrange the packaging and shipping of our artworks, with insurance, worldwide.