Description

Set of 8 folding chairs known as "Rex," an iconic model of modernist and mid-century design, created in 1952 by the renowned Slovenian architect and designer Niko Kralj (1920-2013) for the manufacturer Stol Kamnik. This model stands out for its clean, geometric lines and ingenious folding mechanism: the frame is made of bentwood, while the ergonomic seat and backrest are formed from openwork slats of thermoformed plywood. The set is sold as-is, in need of restoration: surface wear, localized chips or missing veneer on some slats, scratches, and original patina. The folding mechanisms are functional. Dimensions of unfolded chairs: Height 75 cm // seat depth 36 cm 70 x 58.5 cm. Dimensions when folded: Height 77 cm 59 x 11 cm.
