Description

A Baroque-style screen, made of carved, lacquered, and gilded wood, from Italy in the late 19th century. It consists of three sections, each with an upper glass panel framing watercolor prints and a lower panel upholstered in decorative fabric. The carvings and gilded moldings stand out against a refined green lacquered background. The ornate legs culminate in elegant curls, giving the screen a dynamic and sophisticated appearance. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos. If certain details are not clear from the photos, the information provided in the description takes precedence.
