

Pair Of Sky-blue Damask Silk Curtains With A Louis XVI Design

850 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Length : 310 cm

Width : 122 cm

Description

A remarkable pair of large damask silk curtains in a luminous sky blue, adorned with an elegant design of floral medallions, vases of flowers, and leafy garlands, punctuated by delicate vertical stripes. The subtle interplay of satin and matte finishes reveals the full richness of the weave. Depending on the light, the silk offers delicate variations in shade--ranging from sky blue to silvery blue with deeper highlights--giving the design remarkable depth and presence. The composition, inspired by the Louis XVI ornamental repertoire, evokes the refinement of upholstery fabrics designed for elegant interiors. The harmony of the colors and the finesse of the design lend this pair a timeless charm. Both panels are embellished with a matching fringed trim, accented with deeper shades, which beautifully

Dealer

Galerie Rose Couleur

French antiques textiles

Mobile : 06 12 29 60 53

13, Les Arènes

Névian 11200

highlights their finish. They are lined with a light-colored fabric and have a lovely fullness when hung. These curtains are equally suited to a historic home, a mansion, or a classic apartment, as well as to a contemporary interior, to which they will add a touch of softness and elegance. Dimensions of each panel: Height: 310 cm Width: 122 cm Condition: in very good condition. Light-colored lining and matching fringed trim. Pair ready for installation. A beautiful fabric full of character, whose lustrous silk and delicate design will adorn a window with distinction. Ref. 020726