PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Small Meissen Porcelain Cup From The 18th Century

120 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Meissen Porcelain - Dot Period - 18th CenturyA small circular porcelain cup from the prestigious Meissen porcelain manufactory, dating from the Academic Period (known as the "Point Period"), circa 1763-1774.This piece features a scalloped, lobed rim, accented by a delicate line of fine gold gilding. The bowl is adorned with a hand-painted polychrome design depicting a rich central bouquet featuring a fully bloomed rose, accompanied by small clusters of delicate flowers (violets, pansies) on the rim.This bowl is signed in blue underglaze with two crossed swords, featuring the distinctive dot between the crossguards, characteristic of this pivotal period in the manufactory's history The rose design is partially worn. Very slight signs of wear on the gilding / No cracks or chips.Diameter: 14

Dealer

Accents Baroques

Jean François MARTIN - Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 0675245191

Mobile : 06 75 24 51 91

9 route de Clermont

Brignac 34800

cmShipping within France: 10 euros