Description

Oil on panel, signed "MEILI" in the upper left and dated 44."Woman Sleeping in a Meadow"Conrad MEILI was a Swiss painter born in 1895 in Zurich.A student of Ferdinand Hodler, he was a notable contributorto the Realist school, and his work was appreciatedduring his lifetime both in Paris and in Japan.He joined the National Society of Fine Arts in the late 1920sand lived in Paris beginning in 1930. It was in Paris that he met and marriedthe novelist Kikou Yamata in 1932, who was already well-established inParisian literary circles. In 1939, the couple set out on a short trip to Japan,but found themselves stranded in the Land of the Rising Sun with the outbreak of World War II.Already popular in Japan, Meili quickly found himself with a large number of students. In Japan, his style took on
