Elm Desk, Louis XVI Style. Early 20th Century

380 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 91 cm

Width : 50cm

Height : 77 cm/sous assise 63 cm

Description

An elegant small elm desk in the Louis XVI style, likely dating from the first half of the 20th century.This charming piece, with its harmonious proportions, rests on four elegant tapered and fluted legs--characteristic of Louis XVI-style furniture--which lend it a sense of finesse and lightness.The front features two drawers arranged side by side, accented by delicate inlay bands with geometric motifs, showcasing beautiful decorative craftsmanship.Each drawer is adorned with a round brass knob. The rectangular top, which extends slightly beyond the sides and is framed by subtle molding, highlights the beautiful natural grain of the elm and its warm tones. The piece as a whole features a simple, elegant, and balanced design.Of note is an antique merchant's plaque inside one of the drawers, bearing the

Dealer

GRFAntiquités
Généraliste
Mobile : 0628589727

1 rue des 2 ponts
Bacouel-sur-Selle 80460

inscription "C.A. - Furniture, Upholstery, Decoration - Dinard."This small table would be ideal as a side desk, writing table, or small console table.In very good overall condition. Dimensions: Height: 77 cm; Width: 91 cm; Depth: 50 cm. Period: early 20th century, likely. Style: Louis XVI. Wood: Elm. Delivery within Metropolitan France: EUR100.Contact us for more information.