Description

Oil on canvas depicting an intimate and warm interior scene, signed by the Belgian painter Jules Rotsaert. The work depicts a woman seen from behind, seated at a table near a window with paned glass. The room is richly furnished with a rustic sideboard laden with tableware and a wall adorned with several paintings. It plays on the natural light streaming in and on dark, warm tones. Jules Rotsaert (1910-1968) was a Belgian painter best known for his landscapes, cityscapes, floral still lifes and his picturesque village scenes. His style leans toward Impressionism or Post-Impressionism, characteristic of the mid-20th-century Belgian school. Dimensions of the oil painting: x cm The canvas is in good condition; the painting was varnished by its former owner. Shipping via
