Antique Chasuble Made Of White Silk Lampas With A Rep-like Weave

200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silk

Description

A beautiful 19th-century liturgical chasuble, made of white silk and decorated with small floral motifs, and adorned with a rich central orfray featuring bouquets of flowers and stylized foliage in shades of gold and silver. The orfroi is accented with gold braids featuring geometric and botanical motifs, forming an elegant and symmetrical composition. The back features a Latin cross outlined by gold braids, set against a floral-patterned silk background.A set in shades of ivory, silver, and gold, reflecting the refinement of 19th-century liturgical textiles.In its original condition, with visible wear and signs of age on the fabric, as well as a small repair, consistent with its age.

Dealer

Ostade Antiques

Brussels based antique dealer specialised in 18th and 19th century antiques

Mobile : +32 486251211

Bruxelles 1030