Description

American wedding band in 18-karat white gold, set with round faceted rubies all the way around the band.The rubies form a continuous line in shades of raspberry red, accentuated by the brilliance of the white gold. Small, discreet prongs allow the stones' color and facets to take center stage.The setting, with its striated sides, reveals a regular succession of small vertical elements. Openwork beneath each ruby creates a beautiful profile, adding depth and character to this wedding band.A delicate and elegant wedding band, to be worn alone or paired with other rings. Imagine a ring that loops back onto itself, with no beginning and no end: this is the essence of an American-style wedding band, whose stones encircle the finger completely.Here, they are rubies. In Sanskrit, they were called
