Description

Swiss School. Eduard Rüdisühli. Oil on canvas, "Autumn Landscape with a Stormy Sky," signed lower right "Ed. Rüdisühli." 31.8 x 48.2 cm.

Swiss School. Eduard Paul Rüdisühli (1875-1938) was born in Basel, Switzerland, where he studied painting under his brother Traugott Hermann Rüdisühli (1864-1944). Both brothers were clearly influenced by Arnold Böcklin (1827-1901), the undisputed master of Swiss Symbolism. Our painting is a perfect example of what Nordic and Germanic Symbolism contributed to the aesthetics of the late 19th century. Here, the landscape is not merely a realistic observation of nature, but rather a state of mind (stimmungslandschaft). The dramatic light, the stormy skies, the slender trees (cypresses, poplars, tall oaks), and the distant
