

Pair Of Art Deco Bookends--bronze Bulls Signed "luca" On Veined Black Marble Bases

290 EUR

Signature : Luca

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

A pair of Art Deco-era bookends depicting two bulls in a charging stance, notable for their sculptural power and the realism of their muscular details. Crafted in bronze with a golden, nuanced patina, these sculptures are signed by the artist LUCA and bear the "BRONZE" stamp, guaranteeing the quality of their alloy. Each piece rests on a solid, beveled corner base made of black marble veined with white, offering an elegant and refined contrast. In very good condition with a beautiful original patina, this exceptional set will lend an authentic and sophisticated touch to a library or office, whether modern or traditional in style.
