exudes great gentleness and sisterly tenderness: the older sister gently enfolds the younger one while resting her hand under her chin. As an artist of highly sought-after portraits during the July Monarchy and the Second Empire, Aimé-Henri-Edmond Sewrin-Bassompierre demonstrates here a perfect mastery of the pastel technique: the rendering of the skin tones is remarkably natural, the velvety textures of the faces are delicately blended, and the light harmoniously highlights the folds of the fabrics. The work is signed along the lower left edge: "BASSOMPIERRE SEWRIN." The piece is presented in its substantial period oval frame made of wood and stucco gilded with gold leaf, richly adorned with a design of scrollwork and foliage. Dimensions without frame: 65 cm / 46 cm. With frame: 83 cm / 70 cm. Contact me for
