Description

A superb oil on panel signed by the painter Charles Chardar, dated 1959, depicting a coastal cove in Martinique.The work delicately captures the peaceful atmosphere and tropical light of the Caribbean. In the foreground, coconut palms with lush foliage line a sandy beach where a traditional canoe rests. The background opens onto a bay with calm waters, overlooked by a green hill bathed in light.The composition stands out for its masterful use of color--a subtle gradient of greens, azure blues, and sandy hues--rendered with an Impressionist touch full of freshness and depth.
