Description

Louis XVI-style chest of drawers in cherry wood, with fillet marquetry. Elegant Louis XVI-style chest of drawers with three front drawers, dating from the late 18th century. Crafted from fruitwood with beautiful, warm tones. The fronts are embellished with a design of fillet marquetry forming geometric frames; the lock plates are bronze with rocaille motifs. The drawers are fitted with circular bronze pulls, arranged symmetrically. The beveled side panels are adorned with gilded bronze finials. The piece rests on four curved legs, tapering to a slight clog shape, and features a scalloped lower rail adorned with a bronze motif. It is topped by a gray marble top veined with white, with slightly molded edges, and raised sections at the legs. The interiors are meticulously finished and varnished. Period:
