PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Lionel Baes (1839-1913), Young Woman Carrying A Sleeping Child, Oil On Canvas

595 EUR

Period : 19th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Oil painting
Width : 41cm - 56cm
Height : 61cm - 76cm

Description

Oil on canvas by Lionel Baes, signed lower left. In front of a house with white walls, a young woman wearing a headscarf carries a sleeping child in her arms, with a bundle of firewood under her arm. She is wearing clogs and stands on a cobblestone floor.Lionel Baes (Ostend, 1839 - Ixelles, 1913) was a Belgian painter of figures and genre scenes, as well as a landscape painter, portraitist, and etcher. The younger brother of the painter and art critic Edgard Baes, he lived in Brussels. He exhibited at the triennial Salons in Brussels, Ghent, and Antwerp beginning in 1864, directed the Free Academy of Brussels, and painted mythological sets for the theaters in Leuven and Namur. In 1883, he was among the founders of the Circle of Watercolorists and Etchers in Brussels.Artist: Lionel Baes

Dealer

Le Chineur du Passé Simple
Antiquités
Mobile : 0663086687

144 avenue de St Céré
Vayrac 46110

(1839-1913)Period: late 19th or early 20th centuryMedium: oil on canvasSignature: "Lionel Baes," lower leftDimensions: canvas 61 × 41 cm, frame 76 × 56 cm (height × width)Condition: historically re-stretched, fine craquelure. Gilded wooden frame with wear to the gilding and small chips, particularly at the corners, visible in the photos.Viewable in Vayrac (Lot), by appointment. Delivery available in France and Europe, upon request.