Polychrome Porcelain Biscuit Sculpture Group - Three Children With Roses

120 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Biscuit

Height : 21

Description

Polychrome Porcelain Biscuit Group - Three Children with Roses - Napoleon III Period, 19th Century A charming decorative group in polychrome bisque porcelain depicting three elegantly dressed young children gathered around a flowering tree trunk.This delightful composition, imbued with tenderness and romanticism, features two little girls wearing ribboned hats and a young boy seated in the center.The figures, with delicately modeled faces and endearing expressions, wear rich costumes embellished with gilding, characteristic of the decorative taste of the second half of the 19th century.The scene is set on a rockery terrace lavishly adorned with foliage and roses in relief, whose meticulous craftsmanship underscores the finesse of the work.The polychrome scheme

Dealer

Tino antiquites
Mobilier
Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent
Dun les Places 58230

harmoniously combines shades of turquoise blue, white, and soft pink with golden highlights, lending this piece great elegance.This composition evokes European decorative porcelain from the second half of the 19th century, in the style of German and French manufacturers.A lovely display piece, particularly decorative, that will appeal to lovers of antique porcelain and scenes featuring children.Characteristics:Period: second half of the 19th centuryStyle: Napoleon III, Romantic styleMaterial: polychrome porcelain bisque with glazed sectionsDecoration: three children, roses, and foliage in reliefColors: white, turquoise blue, pink, and goldOrigin: European workMark: no clearly identifiable manufacturer's markDimensions:Height: 21 cmWidth: 18 cmDepth: 12 cmCondition: Overall, it has a beautiful decorative appearance. Some signs of age and possible minor wear on the gilding.A charming set of antique porcelain with delicate decoration and particularly appealing colors.