Art Deco Goblet Made Of Amber Glass, Decorated With Naiads

180 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 28

Description

Art Deco amber glass goblet decorated with naiads - Circa 1930 An elegant circular bowl made of pressed-molded amber-colored glass, adorned with a superb relief decoration featuring three naiads, female figures from mythology associated with freshwater.The three naiads, depicted nude in graceful, dynamic poses, appear to be moving amid stylized waves, evoking the movement of water.The design is enriched with undulating lines, geometric motifs, and small raised beads representing water bubbles--all characteristic of the Art Deco aesthetic.In the center, a circular medallion features a design of small raised dots, adding depth and contrast to the overall piece.The beautiful amber hue of the glass highlights the details of the modeling and creates a remarkable interplay of light and

Dealer

Tino antiquites
Mobilier
Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent
Dun les Places 58230

transparency.An original decorative piece, representative of the 1930s taste for mythological subjects and stylized female figures.Characteristics:Estimated date: circa 1930Style: Art DecoMaterial: amber pressed-molded glassDecoration: three naiads in reliefDiameter: 28 cmCondition: appears to be in good overall conditionA beautiful Art Deco bowl with a mythological decoration featuring naiads, particularly appealing for its amber color and the quality of its reliefs.